

FRAID KNOT

Jack (Was Every Inch a Sailor) (traditional)

Byron wanted to do this one as he used to do it with Muldow when he was in Newfoundland. We came up with this cool, although really busy arrangement and I always liked the little harmony solo Danilo and I do with accordion and the mandola. This song was one of our encores for years and used to go over like crazy.

GW

This was a crowd favorite when I played with my old band Muldow. A really fun traditional song and the dance floor packs for it. I love our version of this – Ed's bass line was awesome.
