

Marie's Wedding (traditional)

*We came up with the arrangement for this one sitting around in Ed's basement. I really wanted to add something to make it a bit more interesting to play and give us a unique interpretation of it. Things rapidly got out of hand as they tend to do until Lael reined us all in and the version as appears on Pint came to be. More or less...
GW*

*Another song that was requested over and over again at our Scottish events so we picked it up. This is a Celtic standard that people can sing along and jump around to. It's always a challenge for everyone in the band to follow this arrangement live...lol
BE*