

Spancil Hill (traditional)

Former band mate James Power used to play me this song forever ago and we both loved it. I'm glad we got to record it as I don't think we've ever played it live that I can recall. Shame we never got to do it when James was around but we'll still give him the credit for this one!

There have been so many great versions of this song. Lael did this military beat which I think sort of suits it even though it's not a military song at all. Probably one of the saddest songs we do.
